District Governor Neil Seefeldt, Jr. was born in 1950 in Moberly, Missouri. He joined the Navy in 1968 and retired in 1990 after 22 years of service. Among other assignments, he did four tours of duty in Vietnam.

He is blessed with nine children and ten grandchildren. After retiring from the Navy, he worked for the Internal Revenue Service in the Criminal Investigative Division. He then went to work for the Defense Finance Accounting Service, overseeing the finances of twenty-two government-hired civilian contractors. His next employer was the Columbus International Airport in Columbus, Ohio as Security Supervisor. After 9/11, TSA took over and he was kept on as Security Supervisor.

In 2007, he came to San Diego, California to take care of his mother, who has been a Lion since 1991 with the Chula Vista Host Lions Club. In 2008, she was his sponsor when he joined Lions. Since joining, he has held the office of President of Chula Vista Host Lions Club for two terms, Otay Zone Chair, South Bay Region Chair, and Membership Chair. He is a certified Guiding Lion. He has completed the GLT training and MD-4 Lions Leadership Institute Training. In addition to numerous Certificates of Appreciation and Leadership Awards, he has earned the Dwight E. Stanford Fellowship Award and is a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellowship.
