

District Governor
SCOTT LESLIE
(Lion Linda)
SPRING VALLEY LIONS CLUB

District Governor Scott Leslie was born in Fargo, North Dakota, who had lived in Spring Valley, California for the past thirty-two (32) years. He is a Navy Veteran, has worked in the construction trade for several years after leaving the military service, and currently employed at the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District since 1979. Lion Scott married Lion Linda, the daughter of PDG Juanita Mangels-Williams in 1986 and continued to keep their residence in Spring Valley.

He joined the Spring Valley Lions Club in 1991. He has held all club positions having served more than once or twice in some of them. Positions he held in the district level are the following: District Tail Twister, 1995-1996; Heartland Zone Chairman, 1998-1999; Northeast Region Chairman, 1999-2000; Cabinet Secretary, 2000-2001 & 2002-2003; and Executive Board Advisor, 2004-2005. In the multiple district level, he had served in the Youth Outreach Committee for four (4) years having served as the chairperson on the last year; District 4-L6 Vice District Governor, 2007-2008; and concurrently as VDG, he is the Campaign Sight-First II (CSFII) District Coordinator.

Lion Scott is a Certified Guiding Lion, a Melvin Jones Fellow, and a Dwight Stanford Fellow. In recognition of his service to the association, he has received the following awards: Lion of the Year for his club for three (3) years; District Lion of the Year, 1997-1998; several Governor's Appreciation Awards; an MD-4 Excellence Medal; two (2) International Leadership Medals; an International President's Certificate of Appreciation; and most recently, an International President's Medal during the MD-4 Convention in Modesto, CA on February 2008.

Dubbed "The All-Purpose Lion", Lion Scott can and will get all sorts of jobs done, may it be small or big. District 4-L6 is looking forward to a very bright future under Lion Scott's governorship.
